

Norway battery energy storage project

Overview

Does Norway have a battery market?

Today Norway has not one, but two huge battery markets. “There are two market drivers for batteries: EVs and stationary energy storage. Energy storage is coming on strong now. It’s the key to turning intermittent wind and solar into a stable energy source,” explains Pål Runde, Head of Battery Norway.

What is Norway's battery strategy?

from fossil to renewable energy in Norway and abroad. The battery strategy forms part of the Government’s Green Industrial Initiative, and the value chain or batteries is one of seven pillars in this initiative. The others are the value chains for offshore wind, hydrogen, carbon capture and storage (CCS).

Are batteries a potential green industry in Norway?

McKinsey & Co. has identified batteries as one of Norway's principal potential green industries in the future. According to the consultancy, a rapid and broad strengthening of all parts of the battery value chain is needed to satisfy the global battery shortage.

How big is Norway's battery market?

batteries for stationary energy storage - a market expected to reach EUR 57 billion by 2030. Now, a more mature Norwegian battery industry has greater potential to accelerate the renewable energy transition in Europe. Today Norway has not one, but two huge battery markets.
